

The background is a light pink color with several hearts scattered around. Some hearts are solid pink, while others are pink with white polka dots. The hearts vary in size and are positioned in the corners and along the edges of the frame.

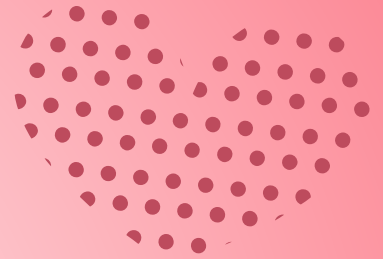

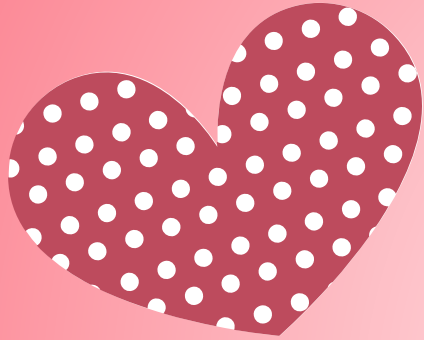

Sneak Peak Into Sisterhood

University of Delaware Panhellenic Council

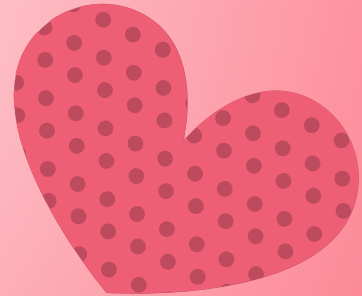

Panhellenic Council

Panhellenic Council

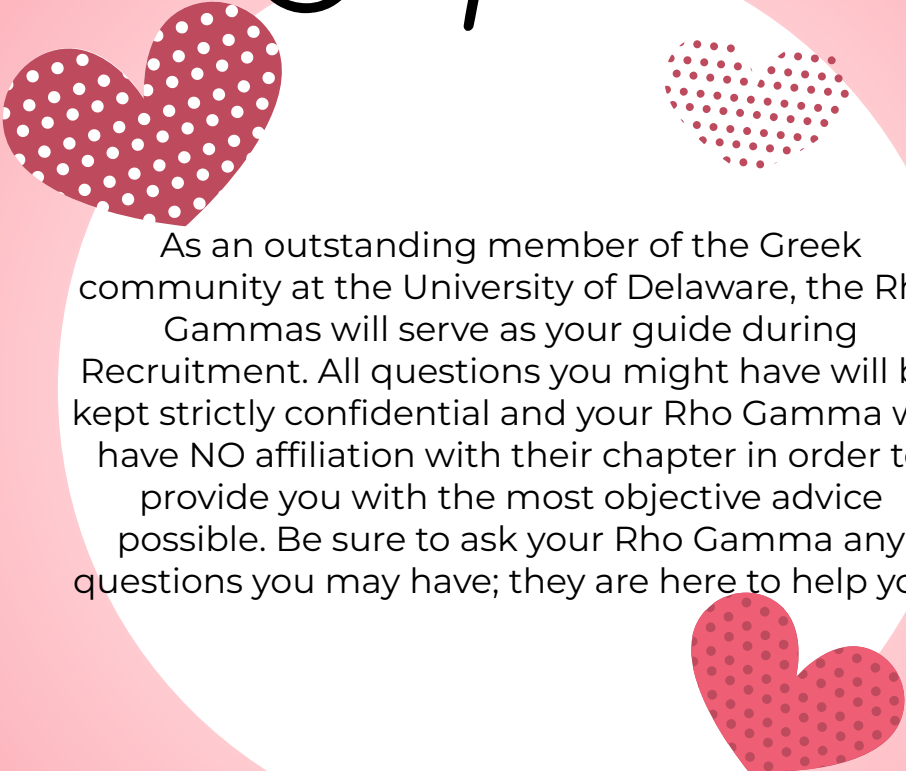

The Panhellenic Council serves as the governing body for the 12 national sororities at the University of Delaware. Nine executive board members and one delegate from each chapter work together to form the Panhellenic Council. The purpose of the Council is to unite sorority women to focus on common goals and values and to create a network of support for the chapters. Panhellenic is constantly searching for interesting opportunities and innovative programming ideas to enrich the lives of sorority women.

Rho Gammas

Rho Gammas

As an outstanding member of the Greek community at the University of Delaware, the Rho Gammas will serve as your guide during Recruitment. All questions you might have will be kept strictly confidential and your Rho Gamma will have NO affiliation with their chapter in order to provide you with the most objective advice possible. Be sure to ask your Rho Gamma any questions you may have; they are here to help you!

Sunday, February 18th

In Person

Bid Day

For Bid Day festivities, you will arrive to Trabant in your choice of jeans or pants that meet the dress code from Philanthropy and Sisterhood, as well as a comfortable t-shirt or top you'd like.

After Rho Gamma Reveal and bid distribution, you will be given a t-shirt from your new chapter to be worn for the rest of the evening. Each chapter has a theme to their bid day festivities that is kept very secret until after bid distribution, so it is ok that you do not come dressed to your new chapters theme!

Monday, February 19th

In Person

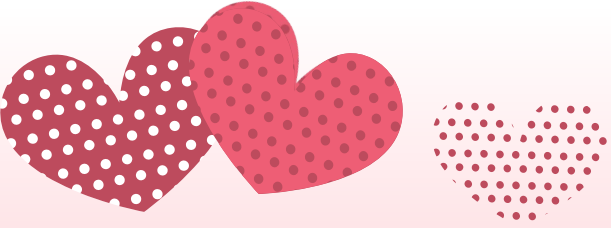

Dress Code Reminders

Dos

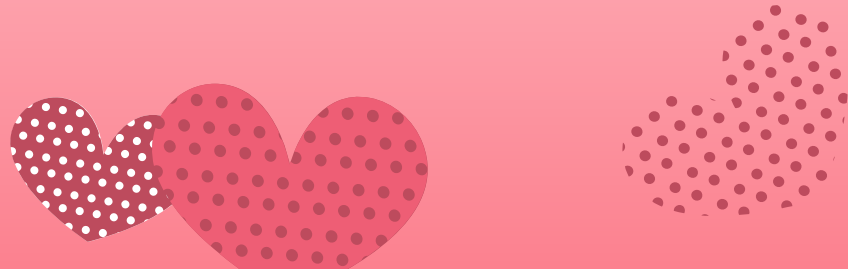

- Dress to your comfort level! There will be lots of standing/walking so get comfy.
- Wear clothes/ accessories that are meaningful to you!
- Ask your Rho Gamma if your clothes are satisfactory before arriving to rounds!

Donts

- Smart watches, excessive jewelry, clothing accessories
- If you dress against code, you risk being sent home by your Rho Gamma to change.
- Your outfits should not be the main focus of recruitment - it should be getting to know the Panhellenic community and finding which sorority fits you best!

Round to Round

What each round is like...

Values Round

- You will visit all 12 Panhellenic chapters via Zoom
- You will be traveling with your PNM group
- Your Rho Gammas will have a zoom link for you to hop on that with questions at any time throughout the days
- This round is a very casual way to get to know each chapter.

Philanthropy

- You will visit up to 9 chapters in person.
- Your Rho Gammas will let you know which location (Trabant, Perkins, or Clayton) they are stationed for the day.
- You must find them before you submit preferences at the end of your Philanthropy event.
- This round you will learn about the chapters' philanthropies.

Sisterhood

- You will visit up to 6 chapters in person.
- These rounds take place over the course of two days, so your events might be more spaced out.
- The same expectations apply for your Rho Gammas as Philanthropy rounds.
- This round you will learn about each chapters' sisterhoods.

Preference

- You will visit up to 2 chapters in person.
- Preference is a much more serious and formal round. As a PNM, you are to be very respectful when entering a chapter's preference room.
- You will speak with your Rho Gamma after preference is finished, however will not submit your preferences with her.
- You will go to Clayton hall to sign the MRABA.

FAQs

What items should be brought to recruitment?

Water, snacks, jacket, chargers

What happens if you encounter any technical problems during the virtual rounds?

You will be rescheduled to meet with the particular chapter at a different time

When will the schedules for each round be posted?

Your Rho Gamma will provide you with your schedule the first day of each round

Will the rho gammas be with the PNMs the entirety of recruitment or just for the beginning?

Rho gammas will be with the PNMs for the entirety of recruitment

FAQs

How many bids can a PNM get?

You can only receive one bid

What is the next step after receiving a bid?

If you receive a bid, you will be going to that chapter's bid day right after receiving your bid. Your chapter will provide you with all the information you need from there!

Do all PNMs receive a bid?

If you put your best foot forward, put in the effort to get to know the chapters and maximize your options, then you will most likely receive a bid

Is it possible to balance being in a sorority with a rigorous academic schedule?

Yes!

FAQs

How much does it cost to go through the recruitment process?

There is a $75 nonrefundable fee to sign up for recruitment. Each chapter has semesterly dues that members need to pay. Each chapter's dues are different, and the individual chapters will be discussing their dues during recruitment. Every chapter offers financial plans and scholarship options for those who need them, so do not let costs deter you from going through recruitment!

Can sophomores and juniors go through recruitment as well?

Yes! There are many sophomores and juniors who go through recruitment every year.

FAQs

Throughout the rounds will it be more us PNMs asking the chapters questions to get to know them, or will they also be asking us questions?

Both! The chapter members will be asking you questions to get to know you, and it is also recommended to ask any questions that you have so that you can get to know the chapter to the best of your ability.

What if we have a class interference with a required recruitment round?
